DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 1-9 and 11-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

Merely processing the response signal to represent a characteristic of the sample would not appear to be sufficient to constitute a tangible result, since the outcome of the processing step has not been used in a disclosed practical application nor made available in such a manner that its usefulness in a disclosed practical application can be realized. See OG Notices: 22 November 2005, "Interim Guidelines for Examination of Patent Applications for Patent Subject Matter Eligibility".

See part b. Practical Application the Produces a Useful, Concrete, and Tangible Result under Section IV Determine Whether the Claimed Invention Complies with the Subject Matter Eligibility Requirement of 35 U.S.C. Sec. 101, sentence 3, in the OG Notice from 22 November 2005 states 'In determining whether the claim is for a "practical application," the focus is not on whether the steps taken to achieve a particular result are useful, tangible, and concrete, but rather that the final result achieved by the claimed invention is "useful, tangible, and concrete."'

Allowable Subject Matter

If the issues with regard to the non-statutory nature of claims 1-9 and 11-20 with regards to tangibility were resolved by means of amendment, then claims 1-9 and 11-20 would be in condition for allowance. See discussion of interim guidelines above.

Art Unit: 2877

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

As to claim 1, see Paper 03092006, mailed March 14, 2006, for reasons for allowance over the prior art of record.

Claims 21-24, 26-35 and 37-42 allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

As to claims 21 and 33, see Paper 03092006, mailed March 14, 2006, for reasons for allowance over the prior art of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
